Barceló The Lakes Golf Course
Designed by P.B. DYE
18-hole 72-par

Re-designed in 2010 by renowned architect P.B. Dye, the championship golf course running through a lush mangrove forest, with 25 lakes that surround and protect it and 122 well-placed bunkers.

The design capitalizes on the natural beauty of the Bávaro area and incorporates native plants and species around the meticulously kept greens and fairways, providing the best playing surface, with the highest industry standards.

With 6,655 yards from the professional exit, the 18-hole, 72-par championship is the most popular new course in the Bávaro and Punta Cana area.
